

Domenico Favuzzi appointed to the Management board of the Federazione Nazionale Cavalieri del Lavoro

The chairman of Exprivia Spa joins the national and Mezzogiorno Group management team

25 February 2020 – Domenico Favuzzi, chairman and CEO of Exprivia Spa and native of Puglia, joins the Management board of the Federazione Nazionale Cavalieri del Lavoro and the Mezzogiorno Group. Five years after being made a Cavaliere del Lavoro by President of Italy Sergio Mattarella, Favuzzi is the fourth representative of southern Italy on the national management board where he will serve as director for a term of three years.

As well as Gianni Carità, head of the biggest jewellery centre in Europe, also a national director and on his second mandate as chairman of the Mezzogiorno Group, the national Board consists of Neapolitan entrepreneur Antonio D'Amato, elected honorary life president, and Neapolitan Alfredo Diana, a permanent member with president emeritus status.

Head of one of the top five ICT groups at national level with headquarters in Molfetta, Puglia and 4,000 professionals in 30 countries across the world, Domenico Favuzzi has been part of the Anitec-Assinform Management board since 2011 and a member of the General council of Confindustria Digitale since 2013. Between 2013 and 2017 he was chairman of Confindustria Puglia and a member of the General council of Confindustria Nazionale and the Council of regional representatives of Confindustria.
